Kidney Complaint.

PROBABLY there is no complaint that afflicts the human system, which is so little understood at the present time, as some of the varied forms of Kidney Complaints.

There is no disease which causes such acute pain or is more alarming in its results than when the Kidneys fail to secrete from the blood the uric acid, and other poisonous substances, which the blood accumulates in its circulation through the system.

If, from any cause the Kidneys fail to perform the functions devolving upon them, the constituents are taken up by the absorbents and the whole system thrown into a state of disease, causing great pain and suffering, and very often immediate death. Hence the importance of keeping the kidneys and blood in a healthy condition, through which all the impurities of the body must pass.

PAIN IN THE BACK.

"There is no remedy known to medical science which has proved itself more valuable in cases of Kidney Complaint than the VEGETINE. It acts directly upon the secretions, cleanses and purifies the blood, and restores the whole system to healthy action.

The following extraordinary cure of great sufferers, who had been given up by the best physicians as hopeless cases, will speak for themselves, and should challenge the most profound attention of the medical faculty, as well as of those who are suffering from Kidney Complaint.

THE BEST MEDICINE.

EAST MARSHFIELD, Aug. 22, 1870.

MR. STEVENS: Dear Sir—I am seventy-one years of age; have suffered many years with Kidney Complaint, weakness in my back and stomach. I was induced by friends to try your VEGETINE, and I think it the best medicine for weakness of the Kidneys I ever used. I have tried many remedies for this complaint, and never found so much relief as from the VEGETINE. It strengthens and invigorates the whole system. Many of my acquaintances have taken it and I believe it to be good for all the complaints for which it is recommended. Yours truly,

JOSIAH SHERMAN.

Pronounced Incurable.

BOSTON, May 30, 1871.

H. R. STEVENS, Esq.: Dear Sir—I have been badly afflicted with Kidney Complaint for ten years; have suffered great pain in my back, hips and side, with great difficulty in passing urine, which was often, and in very small quantities, frequently accompanied with blood and excruciating pain.

I have faithfully tried most of the popular remedies recommended for my complaint; I have been under the treatment of some of the most skillful physicians in Boston, all of whom pronounced my case incurable. This was my condition when I was advised by a friend to try VEGETINE, and I could see the good effects from the first dose I took, and from that moment I kept on improving until I was entirely cured, taking in all, I should think, about six bottles.

It is indeed a valuable medicine and if I should be afflicted again in the same way, I would give a dollar a dose, if I could not get it without.

Respectfully, J. M. GILE,
761 Third Street, South Boston.

NEARLY BLIND.

H. R. STEVENS: Dear Sir—In expressing my thanks to you for benefits derived from the use of VEGETINE, and to benefit others, I will state:—

When eight or nine years old I was afflicted with Scrofula, which made its appearance in my eyes, face and head, and I was very near blind for two years. All kinds of operations were performed on my eyes, and all to no good result. Finally the disease principally settled in my body, limbs and feet, and at times in an aggravated way.

Last summer I was, from some cause, weak in my spine and kidneys, and it was at times very hard to retain the urine. Seeing your advertisement in the Commercial, I bought a bottle of VEGETINE, and commenced using according to directions. In two or three days I obtained great relief. After using four or five bottles I noticed it had a wonderful effect on the rough, scaly blotches on my body and legs. I still used VEGETINE and the humorous sores one after another disappeared until they were all gone, and I attribute the cure of the two diseases to VEGETINE, and nothing else.

If I am ever afflicted with anything of the kind again I shall try VEGETINE as the only reliable remedy. Once more accept my thanks, and believe me to be, Very respectfully, AUSTIN PARROTT,
Dec 1, 1872. No. 35 Gano St., Cincinnati, Ohio.

Diseases of the Kidneys, Bladder, etc., are always unpleasant, and at times they become the most distressing and dangerous diseases that can affect the human system. Most diseases of the Kidneys arise from impurities in the blood, causing humors which settle on these parts. VEGETINE excels any known remedy in the whole world for cleansing and purifying the blood, thereby causing a healthy action to all the organs of the body.

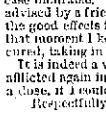
TO PHYSICIANS AND INVALIDS.



The flexible, self-applying Electric Disks, Dr. Garratt's invention, make without care or trouble, "gentle and prolonged applications" of very fine primary currents. They prove sufficiently active and durable for this peculiar method.

While worn by night or day for cold rheumatic neuralgia, lameness, weakness, or chronic pains, the disk in turn to generate and apply its constant multipolar electric action. Each metal acts as element and pole. They are wired avelanche for deep polar inworking. As shown by the expert judges, and in practice, these disks excel all other attempts at this sort of appliance. Nothing like them.

Large disk, $2.50. Children's $1. Other sizes. Also, our new Doubling Chest Protector, 75c., Children's, 50c. Sold by druggists and surgical instrument dealers. Sent by mail on receipt of price, by GARRATT & CO., 6 Hamilton Place, Boston, Mass. jy18

LOUISIANA.

Ex-Secretary Bristow Invited to New Orleans.

A New Orleans dispatch says ex-Secretary Bristow was invited to come here by Gov. Kellogg. In reply Mr. Bristow says: "I thank you for the courtesy of your invitation, but cannot go to New Orleans at present. Let those who are charged by law with the ascertainment of the vote of Louisiana do their duty under the law fairly and fearlessly, and the country will sustain them, whatever the result."

Republicans in New Orleans.—The Plans of the Democrats.

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 15.

Gen. Sheridan, E. W. Stoughton, of New York; Senator Sherman, of Ohio; Hons. John A. Kasson, of Iowa, W. D. Kelley, of Pennsylvania, and Eugene Hale, of Maine, arrived here this afternoon. The republicans will reply to the note of the democrats tomorrow. No action was taken today by either party. It is understood that the republicans are gathering affidavits in several parishes showing intimidation, etc. The democrats, it is understood, will secure several thousand affidavits of colored persons who voted voluntarily for Tilden and Nichols. Several letters are published this evening from colored men in St. Mary's parish, denying Gov. Kellogg's statement that in every parish except Ouachita, East and West Feliciana, the colored vote has been cast solidly for the republican party. Gen. Anderson, of the Returning Board, arrived today. Gov. Wells is expected tonight. The board will meet tomorrow. Wholesale houses report business at a stand-still.

NORTH CAROLINA.

Foreshadowings of Trouble.

A Greensboro' (N. C.) dispatch to the Times says: "In this place a few nights since, when it was supposed that Tilden was elected, the democrats draped in mourning the houses and fences of leading republicans, as also the post office and other federal offices. The building of free graded school was also draped in mourning. This is the only free graded school in the state."

Remarkable Book Sales.

At Menzie's great library sale, yesterday, many rare volumes were disposed of for bibliophiliists' collections. Henry C. Murphy's copy of "Eliot's Indian Bible" was bought by Mr. Cooke of Rhode Island for $900. The gem of the collection—a set of Dibdin's bibliographical works, in fifty three volumes, containing 1000 high class, inserted engravings—was sold separately for $26, and after a close struggle the remaining fifty two volumes were knocked down for $20.28, to Anthony Drexel.

FROM WASHINGTON.

TRIAL FOR PRIZE MONEY.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 15.

The trial of the claim of Admiral Porter and the North Atlantic Squadron for prize money growing out of the capture of Richmond, began yesterday before Judge Humphries. About $1,500,000 is involved in this controversy.

Senator Thurman Declines to go to Louisiana.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 15.

Senator Thurman, of Ohio, has declined his invitation to proceed to Louisiana as a witness of the counting of the vote of that state, and bases his declination upon substantially the same reasons as those attributed to Senator Bayard, of Delaware.

MISCELLANEOUS.

Prize Fighting.

LOWELL, Mass., Nov. 15.

Nine suspected witnesses of a prize fight last Sunday were in the police court this forenoon, and ordered in $1000 each till the 24th inst. The participants intended to go across the New Hampshire line, but made a mistake, and, being in Dracut, are amenable to Massachusetts laws.

Friends of Andrew J. Varney came here today denying that he has been with his family lately. He has been missing since May last, and there is every reason to reiterate the statement that the man found murdered in Westford was him.

Women's Temperance Convention.

PORTSMOUTH, N. H., Nov. 15.

The third annual convention of the Woman's State Temperance League is to be held at Manchester on Wednesday, Nov. 22. Delegates are expected from all female temperance organizations in the state. Mrs. Malloy of Indiana and others will be present to address the convention. Business session at eleven o'clock in the forenoon.

Proclamation Against Diphtheria.

PATERSON, N. J., Nov. 15.

Diphtheria is spreading so alarmingly in this city that the mayor today issued a proclamation to enforce sanitary precautions with reference to keeping the streets clean.

A man named Post was arrested here today for passing a twenty dollar counterfeit note on the First National Bank of Portland, Conn.

The Episcopal Congress in Boston.

BOSTON, Nov. 15.

The morning session of the Episcopal Congress opened with prayer by Bishop Paddock. Dr. James DeKoven, of Wisconsin, read a paper on "The relation of the Protestant Episcopal Church to the freedom of religious thought." Rev. E. A. Washburn, of New York, Rev. Wm. Pudder, of Philadelphia, and J. C. Ropes of Boston, discussed the questions set forth in Dr. DeKoven's paper.

The discussion was further participated in by Rev. F. Courtenay, of St. Thomas Church, New York; Rev. Julius H. Ward, of Massachusetts; Rev. Mr. Almon Portland, of New Brunswick; Rev. Thurman Gallaudet, of New York; Rev. Dr. Harwood, of New Haven; Rev. J. S. Schereshenispay, D. D.

The topic of the evening session was "The Relation of Secular and Religious Education." Essays upon this subject were read by Samuel Elliott, LL.D., Boston, and Rev. Dr. H. A. Coit, of St. Paul's Academy, Concord, N. H., followed with remarks by Henry C. A. Alvord, of Boston; Rev. John W. Krame, of New York; Rev. F. Courtenay, Rev. A. S. Wardell, of the Central Diocese of Pennsylvania; Rev. Dr. Boggs, of New Jersey; Rev. Dr. Hale, Chancellor of the University of Nova Scotia; and Governor Rice of Massachusetts. The general tenor of the remarks was in favor of keeping the two together, and that the divorcement of one from the other must result fatally to both. With one exception the speaker favored the retention of the Bible in the public schools.

The attendance upon the sessions of the Congress thus far has been unprecedently large, and the congregation of representative men of the church unusually full.

Libel Suit.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Nov. 16.

W. R. Shelton, recently elected mayor of this city, has sued the New Haven Palladium for libel, estimating the damages at $15,000. This suit was caused by the publication of an article concerning drink tickets alleged to have been issued by Shelton for election purposes. In publishing the article the Palladium was misled by outside parties. As soon as it discovered that it had been deceived it proceeded to make a correction, and the latter was in type when the suit was brought.

MISSISSIPPI.

An Investigation Asked.

JACKSON, Nov. 15.

The following telegram was sent today:

To Gen. James A. Garfield, New Orleans:

The Republicans of Mississippi earnestly invite you and your associates of both parties, when you have completed your investigations in Louisiana, to visit this state and make a like investigation into the frauds and violence with which the state has been carried.

(Signed) R. H. WARE,
Chairman Rep. State Ex. Com.

CALIFORNIA.

Returns from the Fourth District.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 15.

Latest returns leave no doubt of the election of Luttrell, democrat, to Congress from the fourth district.

The Postmaster-Elect in Oregon.—What the Democrats Intend.

A press dispatch from Salem, Oregon, says it is announced by the democrats here today that the following programme will be carried out in reference to the case of I. W. Watts, presidential elector on the republican ticket, who was postmaster of Lafayette. The law of Oregon provides that the secretary of state, in the presence of the governor, shall count the votes and give to the persons having the highest number of votes, a certificate of election, giving the secretary no power except to count the votes and issue certificates, but it is asserted that a writ will be served on the secretary, issued out of the supreme court, enjoining the issuance of a certificate to Watts and giving it to the highest elector on the democratic ticket.

BY CABLE.

THE EASTERN QUESTION.

PEACE CONFERENCE TO BE HELD.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Nov. 15.

All the powers are stated to be in accord respecting the conference, which is expected to commence its sittings at the end of November. The Porte has made some objection, but its adhesion appears certain, England having made urgent representations to that end.

VIENNA, Nov. 15.

The favorable reply of Austria to the England conference proposal has been despatched to London.

Russia "Holds Her Horses."

ST. PETERSBURG, Nov. 15.

An imperial order was issued today prohibiting the export of horses from western and southern Russia.

GREAT BRITAIN.

Fire on Steamer Lord Clive.

LIVERPOOL, Nov. 15.

The cargo in the main hold of steamer Lord Clive, which was to have sailed from here today for Philadelphia, was scored on fire this morning. The fire was extinguished by the ship's hose before any damage was done to the steamer. The damaged cargo is being relanded.

War Insurance on Steamers.

LONDON, Nov. 15.

The Post's financial says, "London underwriters are taking five shillings per £100 for risk of capture on steamers now loading in Russian ports."

Messrs. Watterson of Louisville, Ky., and Lamar of Mississippi,—two of the amiable and [illegible]serviceable democrats that have gone down to assist Louisiana democrats in carrying the canvass, having examined as well as some republican jurists, the statutes of Louisiana in regard to the counting of the ballots, find that the returning officers are bound to take cognizance of charges of intimidation and violence when alleged at any poll in the state, and bound to reject any vote of any poll against which intimidation may be established. Also, that the finding of the returning board is judicial and final; not being subject to review either by Congress or the courts, and that this law is constitutional and beyond appeal. Hence any reasonable man can see without great effort, that no committee from the north or south can meddle with the returns or results.

THE SPITZ DOG.—Still another death from hydrophobia is reported in New York, and again it is the Spitz dog that caused the fatality. A little boy who had been playing with that dangerous breed was bitten a short time ago and died last week in convulsions of the most violent character. It would seem that sufficient evidence of the dangerous character of the Spitz dog had been published to warrant its extermination.

An Indian mound was discovered in Scott county the other day, and among other things found by excavating was a ballot-box with a false bottom. This effectually proves the truth of the theory that the democratic party had possession of this country when Columbus first came over.—[Burlington Hawkeye.

PROSPECTS OF A GREAT WAR.

Troops and Provisions Gathered.

LONDON, Nov. 16.

The Vienna correspondent of the Times says advices from the Russian frontier announce that freight traffic on railway lines from the Polish frontier southward has been stopped, the roads being required for the transportation of the military stores. Large hospitals are being established. All the physicians in South Russia have been invited to enter the army.

Turkey is also preparing. She intends to concentrate five army crops of 40,000 men each in Bulgaria, and will merely leave sufficient men to maintain the defensive on the side of Servia and Montenegro.

Four English officers of engineers have been engaged by the Porte to superintend the strengthening and arming of the fortresses of the Danube.

A contract has been signed for provisioning Widdin for eight months for a garrison of 14,000 men. The armament of Widdin is complete. It consists of sixty large Krupp cannon and eighty-five pieces of smaller calibre.

The Danube flotilla has been reinforced. The arsenal at Constantinople is busily engaged in fitting out a fleet. A military train of 1200 wagons is being formed.

FROM CUBA.

A SPANISH DEFEAT.

More Trouble Brewing.

HAVANA, Nov. 14, [via Key West.]

Well-grounded rumors are current here of a fight having occurred resulting disastrously to the Spaniards near Puerto Principe. The newly-arrived Spanish troops are said to have been engaged. The Spanish forces retired to Puerto Principe.

There is another rumor that the Spanish authorities have captured a boat near Baracoa with four insurgents carrying correspondence from Cuban refugees in New York to the insurgents here, stating that an expedition with arms, ammunition and money was on its way to this land under command of Quesda.

Saturday's Gazette publishes a sentence of a court-martial held at Holquin condemning a woman named Salome Gomez to be shot, and another named Paula Ocambos to be banished. The offences for which these sentences are passed are not given, but it is supposed both women are implicated in the Los Tunas affair.

Seizure of a Steamer by the Cubans on the High Seas.

HAVANA, Nov. 15.

One thousand troops have arrived from Spain.

While the steamer Montezuma, belonging to the line of steamers running between here and Porto Rico, and touching at various ports of this island, and also at Puerto Plata, was at the latter port, eleven passengers embarked, who, when the steamer was on the high seas, killed the captain, first mate, first engineer and supercargo, and took possession of the steamer. They then landed the rest of the passengers on Romero Key, Cuba, and put out to sea again. It is supposed that the so-called passengers were Cubans, the whereabouts of the Montezuma being unknown, and Puerto Plata being full of refugees from here.

REMINISCENCES OF LINCOLN.

HOW HE RECEIVED THE NEWS OF HIS ELECTION.—HIS INTIMATE KNOWLEDGE OF THE CANVASS.—THE NEWS FROM NEW YORK.—THE MIDNIGHT KISSES.—MUST GO AND TELL MRS. LINCOLN.

[Springfield (Ill.) letter to Chicago Tribune.]

About 8 o'clock in the evening Mr. Lincoln escaped to the telegraph office, then in a two-story building opposite the state house, unseen by the crowd. Mr. Wilson, the superintendent, had an extra force of operators busily receiving dispatches, and, as fast as the figures were transcribed, they were handed to Mr. Lincoln for perusal. He read them aloud to his friends, and commented as he progressed upon their favorableness or unfavorableness. The early dispatches were so disjointed that it was impossible to make much out of them. The returns from the certain republican states were regarded as only confirmatory of previous expectations, and, for a long time, the conversation turned upon the votes of counties and precincts in Illinois. Every locality seemed familiar to him. When the votes from "Egypt" came in, he was quite earnest in his expressions of delight, and seemed to have remembered just how many votes were cast in each place at the prior election.

Sometimes the figures would give the exact gains, and, if they were at all incorrect, Mr. Lincoln knew it at once. Many times he gave vent to such expressions as "That vote will elect —— to the House," or, "That kind of gains will make —— sheriff," or, "One more such gain will give us another congressman," and, while he passed over sentiering returns from western states with silence, or at best a nod of approval, he almost invariably had a word to say about local returns from Illinois. When a dispatch arrived announcing that he had a majority in St. Louis, he exclaimed, "Well, done, Frank Blair and Gratz Brown!" little surmising that those two worthies would themselves be presidential candidates on the enemy's side inside of 12 years. Thus the time wore on, and the returns seemed only to confirm and make sure previous hopes.

Just as it happens now, so it was sixteen years ago, that the vote of New York seemed to the politicians to be the decision of the contest. It will be remembered that an unprecedented event in the history of the opposition occurred, that year, in the New York canvass. There were three candidates, Breckinridge, Douglas and Bell opposed to Lincoln, and, though their respective adherents hated each other with ferocity unprecedented, they all hated Mr. Lincoln worse yet. It was in that state that the southern democrats showed their sagacity in managing the Douglas democracy and the native American leaders who were supporting John Bull of Tennessee. Those southern demagogues outwitted Tammany hall and all the unterrified democrats of New York by persuading them into a fusion movement, by which a ticket of presidential electors was made up of an agreed number of partisans representing each candidate respectively. It was a shrewd trick, and, had it been started early in the campaign, might have made trouble, but as it was, the fusion movement turned out a disastrous failure. Knowing that the solid south was arrayed against him, it was recognized by Mr. Lincoln that he needed the New York vote. He asked Mr. Wilson early on that memorable evening to try and get news from New York. The only reports received were scattering returns from the interior of the state. There was a private message from Senator W. H. Seward giving a glowing account of the gains in his own neighborhood, and another from Thurlow Weed predicting a victory, but the news from the city of New York was wanted. About 11 o'clock the first dispatch came.

It was from Simeon Draper (afterward collector of the port of New York), announcing that the returns from 63 election precincts had been returned, and, with four exceptions, showed such republican gains as to justify an estimate of 35,000 majority. This was so much better than was expected, that there was joy upon all the faces present, and courage in every heart. Then there was a private telegram from the office of the Albany Evening Journal, stating:—

ALBANY, Nov. 2, 1860—11 P. M.—A. Lincoln, Springfield, Ill.: The counties are coming in splendidly. St. Lawrence now estimated at 500. We will overcome any majority the Tammany managers can figure in the city.

(Signed) ALBANY EVENING JOURNAL.

This was still more satisfactory, but about 12.30 another dispatch arrived from Simeon Draper in substance as follows:—

Further returns from seventeen wards, including democratic strongholds, reduce fusion estimated majority to 32,000,—cannot exceed 31,000, which will give us the state by 25,000 sure.

Mr. Lincoln gave a long sigh of relief as he read this at first in silence and then aloud. By this time the room was nearly full. Lyman Trumbull had arrived at midnight from Alton, and entering the room warmly embraced Mr. Lincoln, and said, "It is glorious." A hand-shaking all around took place amid the clicking of the instruments, and there would have been a scene if Mr. Lincoln, pulling an his cloak, had not said, "Well, it's time I should go home and tell Mrs. Lincoln the news."

But it was not to be so soon. Ere he had left the telegraph office, the news had been read to the audience in the state house, and as that made it a sure thing, the people were wild with excitement. They poured out into the streets yelling like Indians, and the cheers, hurrahs and yelling were kept up all night. Mr. Lincoln was captured by a committee and taken to the upper room of a restaurant and confectionery (my memory fails me as to the name of its proprietor) where an oyster-supper had been spread. There were 50 women, and as many men present, most of them his nearest neighbors. He was received with applause and hand-shaking till his inner man was nearly forgotten. However he managed to take his allowance of edibles and carry on animated conversation at the same time. After he had finished, one enthusiastic girl boldly faced the president-elect and kissed him. This was the signal for others to do likewise, and in an instant the female portion of the audience was in an uproar, rushing toward Mr. Lincoln to give him kisses such as Springfield girls of 1860 know how to give. They tumbled the dishes so promiscuously that the managers proposed that a line should be formed and each maiden and matron take her turn in the amatory exercise. This was speedily done and fairly carried out, excepting by one ardent miss still in her teens, who, having given Mr. Lincoln one kiss, took her place at the end of the line again and gave him a second without flinching. This entertainment broke up about 2 A. M., and it was after that hour that a few friends formed a body-guard and escorted the first republican president to his dwelling.

Prof. Loomis concludes, after comparing 500 cases, that storms move at the rate of twenty-six miles an hour on land in this country, and a little over nineteen miles over the ocean. An express train or a first-class steamship could easily keep ahead of a common storm.

The Newport Daily News and the Newport Journal.

The Newport Daily News is published every afternoon, (Sundays excepted,) at the News building, 13 Church street, by Davis & Pittman.

The Newport Journal is published at the same office every Saturday morning, and contains a selection of the best matter in the Daily, including editorial discussions of the topics of the week, literary miscellanies, and at least one good story, the latest markets, and a complete and comprehensive summary of the news,—local and general. The Journal is a large, 32 column paper, and contains more reading matter than any other paper in the southern part of the state.

Complaints regarding the irregular or improper delivery of either paper should be sent to the office at once.

ADVERTISING RATES.

Ordinary advertisements, $1 a square, for the first insertion, and 25 cents for each continuance. Ten lines or less, in this type, make a square. Advertisements in reading matter, are charged for, at 50 per cent. extra. A discount on these rates is allowed on all advertisements ordered for one week or longer. Funeral notices 50 cents each. Yearly advertisers are limited to their immediate business and are allowed twenty five changes a year. No gratuitous advertising for any object.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES.

The Daily News, $6 per annum, or 12 cents a week, to carrier.

The Newport Journal, $2 per annum, or $1 50 if the whole year is paid for strictly in advance.

PRINTING.

Newport Daily News.

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 16, 1876.

THE DAY.

Nobody knows.

The republicans are jubilant this morning.

Troubles in Cuba seem on the increase again.

Somebody must be "counted out." It ought to be, and doubtless will be, the man who has the fewest votes.

The people of Newport will be especially interested in the proceedings of the Town meeting in Middletown published elsewhere.

Transactions in real estate in this city are not as lively as might be supposed by readers of newspapers in which sales are reported two and three times each, as is done by some of our reporters. That looks a little like crowding things, but it may help the market.

Henry Watterson telegraphs from New Orleans that the strangers who have arrived in that city are not likely to be able to do anything against the returning board in declaring the result of the election. He seems to think the "strangers" are the proper men to handle the returns. We should say not.

The excitement throughout the country is rapidly dying away. The sober second thought of the people is leading them to the conclusion that no matter which candidate succeeds to the presidency, no great harm will come. There will be no rebellion, no outbreak, no stoppage of business. What we now ask is a fair count and quiet submission to the declared result reached in a legal way.

The Fall River News says, Mr. John F. Shorey, a former well-known citizen of Fall River, and a great sufferer from intemperance, is now in that city, a completely reformed and apparently Christian man. He is looking remarkably well, and blesses God that he has been snatched as "a brand from the burning" by the preaching of Moody and Sankey. He proposes to work there in the temperance vineyard.

The political situation remains practically unchanged. South Carolina is at last conceded to the republicans by the leading democratic paper in the state. It appears also on the same authority that Chamberlain, and not Wade Hampton, is elected governor. No result has been reached in Florida but it is undoubtedly for Hayes. The republicans claim Louisiana with increasing confidence, and the fact that the democrats are now falling back on technicalities in Vermont, California, Wisconsin and Oregon is a virtual confession of defeat in the three southern states. What the outcome will be it is impossible to tell, and it is likely to be several weeks before the case, which it is said will go to the courts, can be settled.

THE FRANKLIN SAVINGS BANK.

There is a prospect of considerable discussion over the affairs of the defunct Franklin Institution of Savings, in Providence, now in the hands of Winthrop DeWolf as receiver. The receiver claims for his services 2½ per cent. of the collections, amounting to $38,863, and the depositors protest against allowing his claim. At a meeting of about 400 of the depositors yesterday, to consider the receiver's report of his first year's services, which is in the hands of a master in chancery, by order of the Supreme Court, for examination, a committee was appointed to thoroughly examine the matter and report one week from Friday. The meeting protested against allowing the receiver's charges for compensation, and disapproved of the charge of $8500 which he had already drawn. It is understood that the receiver is willing to withdraw his request for the 2½ per cent. commission, and to take whatever the court will allow. From August, 1874, to August, 1875, he collected from all sources $1,551,148, and paid out in dividends, etc., $1,350,167. Sixty-five per cent. of the principal had been paid to depositors. The receiver, in his report, says that he decided, after due consideration, and obtaining advice from eminent counsel, not to recognize the arrangement made by the trustees of the bank and the trustees of A. & W. Sprague, whereby the Sprague indebtedness was extended three years, and has entered suit on the original notes due the bank from that firm, which suit is now pending. The suit does not meet with the approval of some of the depositors, and the committee appointed will consider that as well as other returns.

There are 540 monasteries and convents in Russia, the revenues of which amount altogether to $6,590,000. The cost of maintaining monk or nun during one year amounts, on the average, to about $110.

THE DEMOCRATS AND THE CZAR.

If we may liken very small things to great things, the course of democratic politicians in this country resembles the course of the Czar of all the Russias. In the speech which has created such a commotion in Europe the Czar said in substance: "I will join in a Conference of Powers: but if the decision is distasteful to me I will not conform to it. Unless the Powers adopt my policy in respect to Turkey I will take measures to enforce it on my own account." A conference so undertaken does not promise very satisfactory results, and it is not surprising that there is little hope now in Europe of a peaceful settlement of the Eastern question.

The Democratic politicians profess to desire only a fair count in the three doubtful states. They scout the notion of any majority in those states but a Democratic majority—although some of them took a different view of the matter before the election. They have gone South in large numbers to see that a fair count is had. They say in effect: "We will watch the proceedings of the canvassers in South Carolina, Florida and Louisiana. Let Republicans go and watch with us. We want nothing but fair play. We insist that all the votes cast for Democrats shall be counted Democratic, and that all the votes cast for Republicans shall be counted Republican. If, however, there shall appear to be more Republican votes than Democratic votes, we shall regard the result as proof of fraud.

We regard it so now. We here say in advance that the only honest result possible is a democratic majority. We shall not accept any other conclusion. The people ought not to accept it. They ought to resist it by the sacred right of revolution." The journey of these democratic politicians to the south does not promise to promote peace and justice effectively.

One of them, Senator Randolph, stopped on his way at Greensboro, North Carolina, and harangued a crowd at the railroad station. He said that there was a democratic majority in Louisiana of 7,569. He was scrupulously exact, it will be observed. He might have made it 7,570 just as easily as not, but he seemed to take any advantage. He said that "any other report by the Returning Board"—that is, any other than the votes which he was carrying in his head and which had been canvassed by his imagination—"would be a fraud." He said that Florida had gone democratic, and "a certificate given to a republican would be necessarily a fraud." It will be seen how impartial a judge is this self-constituted inspector of the canvass in doubtful states; how carefully he has prepared himself for his work by dismissing from his mind everything like passion and prejudice.

This democratic Czar of New Jersey is willing to unite with republicans to secure an honest counting of votes, but unless the honest counting be favorable to the democratic party he refuses to be bound by it. The democrats who are of Randolph's mind would better have stayed at home. Their reports from the doubtful states will secure neither confidence nor respect.—[N. Y. Post.

ANECDOTE OF PRESIDENT GRANT.

This neat bit of humor of President Grant's appears now for the first time in print:

Just before the close of the last session of Congress, while riding out one day he was struck with the appearance of a horse that was driven before a butcher's cart. The butcher was sent for and asked if he would sell. The butcher would do so for a proper consideration. The proper consideration was estimated at $250, which was paid. Subsequently, after driving out with Senator Conkling, the president said, "Come to the stable and look at a new horse I've bought."

Mr. Conkling, who is something of a judge of horses, looked him over thoroughly, poked him here, punched him there, and did all that a first class Senator and horseman should do in such a case.

"Where did you get him?" asked the Senator.

"I bought him of a butcher," replied the president.

"How much did you pay for him?"

"Two hundred and fifty dollars," answered General Grant.

"Well," responded the senator, "he may be a very good animal, and doubtless is, but if it were my case, I think I should rather have the money than the horse."

"That is what the butcher thought," replied the president.—[Editor's Drawer, in Harper's Magazine for December.

In one of the largest and most thriving towns of Ohio a well-known hotel keeper and politician was appointed collector of internal revenue. One morning he found on his desk a letter addressed to him officially, without postmark, containing a $500 greenback, to which was pinned a small piece of paper with "Conscience money" written thereon. Quietly folding up the greenback and putting it in his pocketbook, he remarked, "I always did suspect that barkeeper of mine."

The particulars of the will, including the account of the large charitable bequests, were published in the News some months since.

FUNERAL SERVICES OF REV. FREEBORN COGGESHALL.—The Rev. Freeborn Coggeshall, who was well known in this city, died in Oxford, England, Oct. 6th, and his remains were brought to Providence for interment. Mr. Coggeshall was a young man of great promise and was only thirty one years of age at the time of his death. The friends assembled at the residence of his father, No. 187 Waterman street, at 9:30 yesterday morning, where prayers were offered. The services were concluded at St. John's Episcopal Church at Watchemoket. A large concourse of sympathizing friends followed the remains to Swan Point Cemetery, where they were interred.

MR. HALE'S LECTURE TONIGHT.—"My Double and How He Undid Me" would be an appropriate phrase for each of the presidential candidates to use about the other. They seem so closely balanced that whenever we hear of a hundred additional votes for Hayes in South Carolina we presently hear of precisely the same number for Tilden in Florida. While we are waiting, Mr. Hale will tell the history of his own self-appointed double, and how the undoing came about there. Mr. Hale is a vigorous, easy, graphic speaker, of a commanding presence and powerful voice; he has plenty of magnetism, makes himself easily acquainted with his audience, and enjoys his own story as much as any one else does.

Independent journalism of a certain kind is described as follows by the New York Tribune:

"There were a few journals of independent professions in the campaign which ended last week which seemed to think that the only way to be independent was to mount the housetop and throw cabbages at both parties, selecting always the most unsavory vegetables for the particular candidate they professed to favor. About once a month they would say: 'On the whole, our preferences are for Hayes,' and during the rest of the time they worked for Tilden."

MIDDLETOWN.

SPECIAL TOWN MEETING.—A special town meeting was held in this town on Monday to consider and determine what action should be taken in reference to granting to George H. Norman the rights and interest of Middletown in Easton's pond. The Hon. W. P. Sheffield appeared for Mr. Norman and stated to the meeting his desires and purposes, that Mr. Norman was desirous of obtaining the entire control of said pond in order to dredge the same and improve the quality of the water which experiments had shown to be unsatisfactory at present, and also stated what Mr. Norman would give as an equivalent for a grant of Middletown's rights in said pond. An animated discussion ensued participated in by Messrs. E. W. Willard, Henry Ball, Nathaniel Peckham, William Peckham and Geo. A. Brown. The three gentlemen named first in order urged the appointment of a committee to consider the matter carefully and report some safe and proper plan of action for the town to adopt and the two gentlemen named last in order were in favor of immediate action and contended that whatever rights the town had in said pond they had never been of any great value to it. As the result of the deliberations of the meeting the following resolutions were passed:

Resolved, that the subject matter of the grant of that part of Easton's pond in Middletown to George H. Norman, and all matters referred to in the warrant for calling this town meeting in connection therewith, be referred to a committee consisting of the town council and five freemen of this town, with directions to ascertain the rights of this town in the said pond, and to report their conclusions in the whole matter at an adjourned meeting of this town.

Resolved, that in connection with the town council of this town, Messrs. Elisha W. Willard, Robert S. Chase, George A. Brown, Henry Ball and William Peckham be and they are hereby appointed to constitute the committee mentioned and called for in the resolution next aforegoing and that said committee be and they are hereby authorized and empowered at their discretion to employ and consult legal counsel to aid them in the execution of their duties as aforesaid.

The meeting then adjourned to Monday November 27th at one o'clock P. M.

A MODEL MAN.

"Nicholas, here is some good news for thee."

"Tell us what it is," said the young man.

"The Bensons are going on the 'Ariadne'—on the same steamer with thee. No," she added, after reading further, "only Mr. Benson and his ward, Miss Larkin, with her companion. She is a wretched invalid. I suppose the voyage is for her benefit."

"But I don't know Mr. Benson," said Nicholas, disappointed.

"I shall have the privilege of giving thee a letter of introduction," said Mrs. Fleming.

"He's a good man to know, of course?" said Nicholas.

"Oh! he's what they call a model man," responded Mrs. Fleming—"a man without reproach—more respected, more trusted than any man I know."

"Well," said Nicholas, "if he's a model man, I should like to know him. A model is just what I'm after. I fancy there's stuff enough in me, if I only had a model."

"Nicholas," said Glezen, "you are not polite to your guests. Mr. Gold here is a model man. I am a model man. I say it will profound modesty. I come up here and display my imperfections to you and, and off you go wandering after strange gods. You deliberately trample on the commonest notions of friendship and hospitality."

"Glezen, what's the fun of fooling? A fellow never knows what to say," responded Nicholas.

Mrs. Fleming laughed. She had read Glezen at a glance, and fully appreciated the temptation to banter which such a nature as that of Nicholas presented to him. So she said:

"I fancy a model man must be a man who never changes,—one who never laughs, never cries, is never rude, never weak, is always the same, governed by principle, and can stand and be looked at years at a time."

"Can a fellow love him?" inquired Nicholas.

"Well, I suppose his wife and children love him; but everybody respects him, and everybody trusts him. He is treasurer of everything. I suppose he holds in trust the money of more widows and orphans than any other man in New York."

The last remark aroused the attention of Mr. Bellamy Gold. Up to this time he had been quietly engaged with his dinner, and had evidently regarded himself as an outsider. His observation and his quick lawyer's instincts had taught him that no man is liable to be crowned with a great many trusts who does not seek them, and make their possession a part of the policy of his life. His client was about to pass into the intimate companionship of this man, and the prospect was not a pleasant one.

"A model man—begging your pardon, Mrs. Fleming," said Mr. Bellamy Gold,—"is a made-up man. At least, that is what my observation has taught me. He has shaped everything in him to a policy. Most of the model men I have known have shaped themselves to just this. Now I don't know Mr. Benson, of course. He may be an exception, but I wouldn't trust a model man as far as I could see him. He is always a pretty piece of patchwork, cut down here, padded there, without angles, and without any more palatable individuality than—than—that plate of squash."—[From "Nicholas Minturn," Dr. Holland's new story, begun in Scribner's Monthly for December.

A Detroit boy, after finishing the last chapter of a book called "The pleasures of the Deep," pleaded with his father to let him ship aboard a lake schooner. The old man smiled a grim smile, took the case under consideration, and in a few days the boy was on the rolling deep, having shipped as a greenhorn on a vessel in the lumber trade. He sailed to Saginaw, came down and crossed to Toledo, and next day he appeared in Detroit, lame and stiff, his throat sore, one eye nearly shut, and a feeling of humbleness running all through him. "What! back again?" cried the old man, as the boy entered the house. "Yes, father; I want to saw all the wood for winter, bring in all the coal, clean out the cellar and paint the barn, and you needn't give me but two meals a day." "Don't you like sailing?"

"Father, you don't begin to realize anything about it. The captain sailed right along on Sunday, the same as any other day, and I believe he swore even harder. He wouldn't give me an umbrella when it rained, he made me sit up most all night, and two or three times he called me up at midnight and made me haul on ropes and drag old soils around. There wasn't a single night when all of us not off to bed at nine o'clock, and there wasn't a day that he didn't boss us around and break in on us every time we got to reading anything good! I like land, father, and I wish you owned a farm."

In what place are two heads better than one? In a barrel.

The man who comes on the stage at his cue is prompt; but the man who does not come at all is prompter.

An old woman who came near being run over by a hearse declared that she was not all superstitious, but always thought that it would be unlucky to be killed by a hearse.

"What is that man yelling at?" asked an Illinois farmer of his boy. "Why," chuckled the urchin, "he's—he's yelling at the top of his voice."

There is a "Hold the Fort" galop. It is intended to show how secular and religious things can go prancing about in unison.

The game of polo is done for the season, at Newport, but the army has not yet finished making game of poor Lo on the frontier.

A man in Indianapolis earns his living by killing English sparrows, the plumage of which he sells for the decoration of ladies' head-gear.

Robert Browning calls the British reviewers "chimney sweeps" in his new poem. When they flue at him he had a brush with them, and they didn't suit him.

A woman who was told that some tables in the Russian department were made of malachite exclaimed: "My goodness! I thought Malachite was one of the prophets."

"You wouldn't take me for twenty, would you?" said a young lady who looked much younger to an old bachelor. "Take you for twenty!" he exclaimed, "yes, for life."

As a stern-wheel steamboat was passing up the Ohio river the other day, a little girl who was standing on the hotel stoop ran into the house to her mother, calling out, "Mother, mother, come and see this steamboat—it's got a bustle on."

Mrs. Partington (loquitur).—"But there! The Japanese department, I infected it thoroughly. It suppressed my highest exhortation. Sich armistice brick a brick! Sich fans of uni-q designs! Sich vases and gardeners! Sich rair articles of virtue! It beggars deception!"

When a blear-eyed, bald-headed weather prophet is asked whether it is going to be a hard winter, he shuts one eye, looks at the sun with the other, digs up a clump of grass, examines the roots, and says, "I don't know." He is generally correct.

A bright little three year old, in Hartford, having become a little mixed between her religious instruction and her nursery rhymes gravely recites: "The Lord is my shepherd and has lost his sheep; and He don't know where to find them."

Anybody can run a newspaper. All there is to do is to get a lot of type, a press, a pair of scissors, a paste cup and brush, $20 in cash, a set of cast-iron nerves—when there will be no more trouble in running a paper, than there is skinning up a church steeple feet first.

Lately at an English railway station a black and tan dog chased a rat upon the line, and the train coming on him too rapidly to allow of his getting out of the way, he lay down close to the road bed, allowing the cars to pass over him, and escaped uninjured.

An armor-plate twenty-four inches thick has been rolled by John Brown & Co., of Sheffield. It is the thickest in the world, and believed to be artillery proof.

Andamanese widows wear their husbands' skulls upon their shoulders as ornaments. What a source of satisfaction the woman must have who can wear a pair!

The number of the centennial envelopes issued by the postoffice department is about 8,500,000. The issuing of these envelopes has been discontinued.

A great historical painting of the proclamation of the British empire at Delhi will be made by Mr. Val Prinsep, who will go to India for the purpose. He is to receive £5000 for the work and £1000 for expenses.

The Hanover provincial parliament has passed a unanimous resolution, to the effect that the sequestered property of King George of Hanover should be restored to its owner. But the motion requires the approval of the imperial government and parliament, and, if passed, will probably be with the condition that the whole three million pounds shall be forfeited if ever used against Germany.

The East river bridge piers, says the New York Express, are wholly built of granite. Each contains over 900,000 cubic feet, and weighs over 70,000 tons. The base of the pier covers 17,000 square feet; and it is estimated that the total weight of the bridge proper, when loaded with pedestrians, railway trains, carriages and horses, will be about 5,000 tons. The pressure upward from the base of the pier will be only a little over four tons per square foot.

SHEEP.—No stock requires more careful attention than sheep. If not well fed, they suffer, and if too well fed they become dainty and lose appetite. Perfect regularity should be observed in feeding, and then they will not neglect course food while waiting for their grain. A system should be adopted and adhered to rigidly. Half a pint of grain, daily is, sufficient at present: it is easier to increase the feed than to diminish it. Ample room, and open, airy sheds should be provided. Crowding and heating will cause shedding of the wool. A daily run in a dry field will be healthful. Unless lambs are wanted for the butcher, ewes should not be coupled until late this month. Whenever practicable, the lambs should come with the young grass.

Mr. Keating of California thus wrote to a widow: "Methinks sometimes when I lay awake in the morning and think of thee, I fancy I see the canopy of heaven open and and a bright vista appears from it, and lo! I see thee, my angelic girl" She weighed 190 pounds, and has sued him for breach of promise.

A mule near Marysville, Cal., is probably the only animal of his kind in the country with a bank account. His owner is a sheep herder near Gridley's station. For some time he has been depositing in the bank the sum of $5 per month to the credit of his dog and a mule, so that in case of his sudden death they would have something to live upon. The other day the dog died, and the mule is full heir to the estate.

The celebrated diamonds exhibited by Tiffany, or the greater portion of them, are displayed at his New York establishment. A correspondent who has lately seen these brilliant and costly jewels states that $400,000 worth were arranged on a tray about eighteen inches long by twelve in width.

BUSINESS NOTICES.

TO WORRY THE LIVER

And injure the system generally, take blue pills and calomel. To regulate it, and endow the entire system with healthful vigor, use Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. Billious invalids, which of these two recipes will you adopt? We doubt not, the latter. By so doing, you will avoid the disastrous consequences which the persistent or frequent use of mercury entails, and effectuate the desired reform in the action of the biliary gland without danger, as well as speedily and thoroughly. The Bitters invariably remedy yellowness of the complexion and whites of the eyes, pains in the right side and under the right shoulderblade, furred tongue, high-colored urine, nausea, vertigo, dyspepsia, constipation, heaviness of the head, mental despondency, and every other manifestation or accompaniment, of a disordered condition of the liver. The stomach, bowels and kidneys also experience their regulating and tonic influence.

SCARCITY OF MONEY.

There is no doubt but the present situation of all kinds of business and industry is fearfully depressed, and it behooves every family to look carefully to their expenses. Winter is coming on when children are liable to croup, whooping cough, etc. Coughs and colds will prevail everywhere, and consumption with other throat and lung diseases will carry off many. These diseases should not be neglected, doctor bills are expensive, and we would advise our people to use BOSCHEE'S GERMAN SYRUP. It never has failed. One bottle at 75 cents will keep your whole family well during the winter. Two doses will relieve any case. Sold in all towns in the United States, and by your druggist James H. Taylor.

SCHENCK'S PULMONIC SYRUP, FOR THE CURE OF CONSUMPTION, COUGHS AND COLDS.

The great virtue of this medicine is that it ripens the matter and throws it out of the system, purifies the blood, and thus effects a cure.

SCHENCK'S SEA WEED TONIC, FOR THE CURE OF DYSPEPSIA, INDIGESTION, &C.

The tonic produces a healthy action of the stomach, creating an appetite, forming chyle, and curing the most obstinate cases of indigestion.

SCHENCK'S MANDRAKE PILLS, FOR THE CURE OF LIVER COMPLAINT, &C.

These pills are alterative, and produce a healthy action of the liver, without the least danger, as they are free from calomel, and yet more efficacious in restoring a healthy action of the liver.

These remedies are a certain cure for consumption, as the Pulmonic Syrup ripens the matter and purifies the blood. The Mandrake Pills act upon the liver, create a healthy bile, and remove all diseases of the liver, often a cause of consumption. The Sea Weed Tonic gives tone and strength to the stomach, makes a good digestion, and enables the organs to form good blood; and thus creates a healthy circulation of healthy blood. The combined action of these medicines, as thus explained, will cure every case of consumption, if taken in time, and the use of the medicines persevered in.

LITTLE GOLDEN HAIR.

How dreamily passed the soft summer day!
How drowsily hummed the bee on her way!
Still were the buds in their leafy fen,
While silent and lazy lay woodland and glen.
Soft, but clear, flowed the swift forest stream,
Like the changing scene of a passing dream.
Here little Golden Hair wandered alone,
Swinging her basket and singing this song:
"My love he twined me a fairy bower,
And twisted heartsease over the door,
And made me a seat of violets blue,
And pledged me a love ever so true."
So sweet little Golden Hair though as she sang,
"My love shall be handsome and tall and strong,
His eyes shall be soft with a loving light,
And he'll hold my hand so tight, so tight;
He will love me more than the world beside,
He'll call me his darling, his love, his pride;
And we will live," dreamed Golden Hair,
"In that shady cave just down in the dell,
Where he'll twine in my hair the sweet daffodil,
And we'll dance by the light of the silvery moon
Nor think of the hours that pass so soon."

Slowly the shadows crept on and grew long,
While carolled the birds their sweet evening song,
But the dark, dreamy eyes of Golden Hair
Were seeking for lovers in water, in air.
"Golden Hair! Golden Hair!" murmured the stream,
"See the sun sets red through forest green."
"Golden Hair! Golden Hair!" nodded the flowers
"The west is all golden, and evening lowers."
Slowly she rose in the fast waning day,
And, sighing that she could no longer stay,
Wandered back by the setting sun,
And dreamed of a life not yet begun,
Peopled the clouds with lovers and knights,
And in fancy soared to fairy heights.
She stood at the gate and watched the gold
Turn paler and paler and then grow cold.
"The fairies are gone," sighed Golden Hair,
And a tear dropped down through the evening air.
"Why is my darling so sad tonight?"
Asked the dear mother so tender and bright;
"What has gone wrong through the sunny day?
Is my sweet-eyed baby tired of play?"
"Oh! 'tis not that," sighed the little one;
"I was watching the fays in the setting sun,
And now they are gone, I know not where,
And I cannot find my love in the air."

Dear Golden Hair, like you we aspire,
We dream and we long for something higher,
Something beyond this mundane earth,
Something of new and glorious birth,
Longing to soar to things unseen,
And losing ourselves in a golden dream.

CHILDREN TEETHING

MRS. WINSLOW'S
SOOTHING SYRUP,

For Children Teething,
greatly facilitates the process of teething, by softening the gums, reducing all inflammation—will allay ALL PAIN and spasmodic action, and is

Sure to Regulate the Bowels.
Depend upon it, mothers, it will give rest to yourselves, and

Relief and Health to Your Infants.

We have put up and sold this article for years, and CAN SAY IN CONFIDENCE AND TRUTH of it, what we have never been able to say of any other medicine—NEVER HAS IT FAILED, IN A SINGLE INSTANCE, TO EFFECT A CURE, when timely used. Never did we know an instance of dissatisfaction by any one who used it. On the contrary, all are delighted with its operations, and speak in terms of highest commendation of its magical effects and medical virtues. We speak in this matter "WHAT WE DO KNOW," after years of experience. AND PLEDGE OUR REPUTATION FOR THE FULFILMENT OF WHAT WE HERE DECLARE. In almost every instance where the infant is suffering from pain and exhaustion, relief will be found in fifteen or twenty minutes after the syrup is administered.

This valuable preparation has been used with NEVER FAILING SUCCESS in

Thousands of Cases.

It not only relieves the child from pain, but invigorates the stomach and bowels, corrects acidity, and gives tone and energy to the whole system. It will almost instantly relieve Griping in the Bowels, and Wind Colic.

We believe it the BEST AND SUREST REMEDY IN THE WORLD, in all cases of DYSENTERY AND DIARRHŒA IN CHILDREN, whether it arises from teething, or from any other cause. We would say to every mother who has a child suffering from any of the foregoing complaints—DO NOT LET YOUR PREJUDICES, NOR THE PREJUDICES OF OTHERS, stand between your suffering child and the relief that will be SURE—yes, ABSOLUTELY SURE—to follow the use of this medicine, if timely used. Full directions for using will accompany each bottle.

Be sure and call for
"Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup,"
Having the fac-simile of "CURTIS & PERKINS" on the outside wrapper.

Sold by druggists throughout the world. aug17-6m

Of such instruments, at the U. S. CENTENNIAL, 1876, and are the only organs assigned this rank. Their superiority is thus declared, not in one or two respects only, but in all the important qualities of an organ. A medal and diploma have also been awarded them, but medals of equal value were awarded all articles deemed worthy of recognition, so that many makers can advertise "first medals" or "highest awards."

Comparative rank in excellence, has been determined by the judges' reports alone, in which the MASON & HAMLIN ORGANS are unanimously assigned "The FIRST RANK in the several requisites" of such instruments, and are the only ones assigned this rank. See judges' reports. This result was not unexpected, for these organs have uniformly taken highest awards in such competitions, there being less than six exceptions in hundreds of comparisons. They were awarded first medals, and highest honors at Paris 1867, Vienna 1873, Santiago 1875, Philadelphia 1876; having thus been awarded highest honors at every world's exhibition at which they have competed, and being the only American organs which ever obtained any award in Europe.

NEW STYLES, with improvements exhibited at the CENTENNIAL; elegant new cases in great variety. Prices very lowest consistent with best material and workmanship. Organs sold for cash or installments, or rented until rent pays. Every organ warranted to give entire satisfaction to every reasonable purchaser or the money returned. ILLUSTRATED CATALOGUES sent free.

TO THE LOVERS of STEREOSCOPIC VIEWS.

THE ATTENTION of the public is invited to the following views from negative by J. A. WILLIAMS, which is believed to be the best and largest collection of the gems of Newport scenery ever offered.

The negatives are all carefully taken with the best materials and instruments and aim to present not merely patches of landscapes from points chosen at random as in the case with many others, but views which shall combine within themselves all the best elements of a picture in the artistic sense.

We would call particular attention to our new cabinet size views taken the present season, 1876, which exhibit with all the fidelity of the stereoscope.

Parties who may wish to make presents to their friends abroad, or to carry home mementos of Newport, cannot make a more acceptable choice than by selecting from the many beautiful views of Newport and surroundings.

Interiors and exteriors of houses taken to order, parties, horses, &c.

Fall Campaign of 1876.

TO ALL who wish to go through the exciting presidential election with their good reputation unspotted, I will say that the best and cheapest way is to come direct to my carriage depot and purchase a good serviceable carriage with which you can rush over and by all political orators who are trying to make the dear people think just now that the salvation of our great country depends upon the people following their advice instead of each voter thinking and acting for himself. If each voter will follow this advice our country is safe.

I offer to sell cheap the following

CARRIAGES:

9 top buggies all in good order and newly painted,
4 half top baronches,
1 Brownell carryall; second-hand, in good order,
1 coupe or storm carryall, cheap,
2 new phaeton buggies,
6 open wagons cheap,
1 new carryall,
1 new express wagon,
1 new open business wagon cheap,
4 double express wagons,
1 two horse extension carryall,
2 nice dog carts,
3 two horse sleighs, (better buy now,) and several others.

Thanking my friends for their very liberal patronage during the past. By their kindness I have been able to dispose of over forty different carriages—a very good sale for Newport. I still hope by fair dealing to merit a continuance of their favors.

HOUSE PAINTING.

Now is the time to make arrangements for fall and winter house painting, and as I don't propose to rail and annoy people at their residences by asking them for work and promising to do more work and better work than my brother painters can do for the same money; but, if people wanting anything done in the painting line from glazing a light of glass to painting a hotel, will call on me or drop a note to box 24, I will do the utmost to please, and will warrant all work entrusted to my care, to be done as agreed and at the time specified. My reference is the parties whom I have worked for, for the past ten years or more. Respectfully,

A. L. BURDICK,
House and carriage painter.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse."
CHARLES MASON, Commissioner of Patents.

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a man more competent and trustworthy and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.

"Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me over THIRTY applications for Patents, having been successful in almost every case. Such unsolicited proof of great talent and ability on his part, leads me to recommend ALL inventors to apply to him to procure their Patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges."
